ALEXANDRA SALAS

Cape Coral, FL
Phone: (786) 512-4926
Email: aesalas0687@eagle.fgcu.edu
GitHub: https://github.com/aesalas

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- Florida Gulf Coast University, Candidate for Bachelor of Science, Software Engineering with Mathematics minor, expected graduation May 2022

SKILLS AND QUALITIES

- Programming experience in Java, JavaFX, C++, Python, SQL, HTML, CSS, Atlassian (Confluence and Jira)
- Completed coursework includes Computer Organization and Assembly Language, Object-Oriented Programming, Software Security, and Data Structures and Algorithms
- First generation college student

EXPERIENCE AND PROJECTS

Spotify Pomodoro Technique Web Application
January 2021 – Present
- Utilize Spotify API to help students time their music using the pomodoro technique.

VHI Webpage Requirements
January 2021 – April 2021
- A semester long project focused on the documentation side of Software engineering.
- Involved creating requirements for a client, writing the documentation, and going through the processes of requirements engineering.
- Used JIRA and Confluence to manage backlog items, user stories, prototypes, and other documents.

Receptionist, EIB Home Inspections
June 2017 – June 2018
- Managed receptionist area, including greeting customers, responding to telephone, and in-person requests for information.
- Prepared reports to be sent out to insurance companies and realtors.
- Managed inspection schedule.
- Engaged in customer service issues over the phone.

Volunteer, Magik Adult Daycare
August 2013 – July 2014
- Volunteered over 200 hours in total.
- Cared for, fed, and assisted several patients.
- Managed the front desk and updated files.

AWARDS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

- Current GPA of 3.771
- FGCU Dean's List, 2018 - Present
- Top 10 in high school graduating class, 2018